

2025 TORONTO ARTS FOUNDATION AWARDS INDIGENOUS ARTIST AWARD

DESCRIPTION & ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

Nomination Deadline: November 25, 2024

The Toronto Arts Foundation Awards are designed to heighten public awareness of the arts in Toronto by recognizing artistic excellence and achievement. The awards celebrate artists, cultural leaders and organizations whose work contributes to the artistic and cultural life of Toronto.

Toronto Arts Foundation Awards are presented in recognition of a body of creative accomplishment rather than for specific works or achievements. The awards are generously funded by individuals and sponsors. Toronto Arts Foundation presents these awards annually at a variety of events, including our annual Mayor's Arts Lunch.

Award Description

The Toronto Arts Foundation Indigenous Artist Award is a $20,000 cash prize which celebrates an Indigenous artist or artist collective that has made a recognized contribution to the creative cultural life of Toronto. In addition, the recipient selects an artist mentor/Elder or mentee/protégée to receive $5,000. In addition to the prize money, the 2025 recipient will receive a complimentary week-long stay at Valleyview Artist Retreat. Established in 2021, the Indigenous Artist Award is presented every other year at the Mayor's Arts Lunch. The recipient and mentor/Elder or mentee/protégée prize are generously supported by the K.M. Hunter Foundation.

Basic Eligibility Requirements

Individual Artists:

- must be Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, Inuit).
- must have demonstrated an ongoing association with Toronto.
- must have contributed significantly to the arts and culture of Toronto.
- must be living at time of selection.
- may self-nominate, however; a letter of support is strongly recommended
- undergraduate and college students are not eligible to apply.
- nominees are not eligible to nominate or receive Toronto Arts Foundation awards while serving on the board member or staff of Toronto Arts Foundation or Toronto Arts Council.

Collectives:

- all members must identify as Indigenous.
- must be headquartered in Toronto and have a significant portion of its activity taking place in the city.
- undergraduate and college students are not eligible to apply.
- must have contributed significantly to the arts and culture of Toronto.
- may self-nominate (for example, a member of the collective may nominate the collective)

Definitions

Professional Artist: an individual who is recognized as such by their peers (artists working in the same artistic tradition), who has a history of public presentation, publication and/or production, who is not currently enrolled in an undergraduate or college program, and who is committed to devoting more time to their artistic activity if financially feasible.

Collective: A collective is defined as two or more artists working together under a group name, either on a single project or on an ongoing basis. Collectives are unincorporated and operate on a not-for-profit basis.

*Incorporated Organizations are not eligible for this Award

With the exception of the Newcomer Artist Award, no person or organization may be selected for more than one Toronto Arts Foundation Award within any given year, and no person or organization may receive the same Toronto Arts Foundation Award twice. This does not preclude a recipient from being considered for a different Toronto Arts Foundation award in the future.

How to Nominate

To nominate an individual, a collective or organization for the Indigenous Artist Award you must:

- visit the Toronto Arts Foundation Nomination Portal
- register an account on Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal or sign into your existing account
- submit the nomination online, complete with supporting material.

Notes:

Along with the name of the individual or organization you are nominating, the Nomination Portal will ask for a biography, a nomination rationale, and accompanying support material in the form of visual, audio or text-based attachments.

Nominators can save their application at any time before submission by clicking 'Save Draft.' Nominators can log-in and out of Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal as many times as needed before clicking 'Submit.'

*Please ensure you are on/register through Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal and not Toronto Arts Council's 'TAC Grants Online.'

Award Selection Process: Policies and Procedures

Appointment of Awards Assessors

An award panel of up to five Indigenous arts community members selected by the Award Manager will review nominations and recommend a shortlist and a recipient for final approval by Toronto Arts Foundation's Board of Directors. Participants in each panel include practitioners of the arts, organizers, programmers, producers, curators, critics, commentators and lay specialists. Panelists must have recognized expertise, credibility, and experience along with a sense of history and perspective.

The final list of assessors is made public in the form of an announcement distributed to media and Foundation stakeholders and posted on the Foundation's website.

Details of Nomination and Selection Process

Members of the arts community and public are invited to nominate individuals and arts organizations to be considered by the assessors. Nominations must be submitted through Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal. Where appropriate, nominations may include accompanying support material in the form of visual, audio or text-based attachments. Award assessors are precluded from participating in the nominating process.

The assessors will be informed of Toronto Arts Foundation's criteria and the unique aspects of each award.

In addition to specific requirements for each award, deliberations will be guided by the following assessment criteria:

- artistic strength and achievement
- strength of the candidate's artistic goals and objectives
- contribution to the development of arts and culture in Toronto
- the nominee's overall public impact including community engagement and animation

The assessors endeavor to reach unanimous decisions in its selection process. In the event that unanimity is not achieved, a decision may be reached by majority vote. All deliberations are strictly confidential.

Following deliberations, the assessors will recommend a shortlist and recipient for each award. The shortlist will be made public in advance of the official awards presentation. The recipient will be announced the day of the official awards presentation event.

Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest refers to a situation in which private interests or personal considerations may affect an award assessor's judgment in the assessment process.

Specifically, a conflict of interest exists where an assessor has a financial interest in the success or failure of a candidate; has a personal interest in a specific candidate or has any other reason which makes them unable to objectively evaluate the candidate.

If in the course of the assessment deliberations, any assessor has a conflict of interest, that person is expected to declare such conflict and withdraw from the selection/voting process.

Toronto Arts Foundation reserves the right to amend these Policies and Procedures, without notice to any party.

For question about the awards and eligibility please contact:

Liz Tsui, Coordinator, Program Outreach

liz@torontoarts.org

416-392-6802 x225