

2026 TORONTO ARTS FOUNDATION AWARDS MURIEL SHERRIN AWARD DESCRIPTION & ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

Nomination Deadline: November 26, 2025

The Toronto Arts Foundation Awards are designed to heighten public awareness of the arts in Toronto by recognizing artistic excellence and achievement. The awards celebrate artists, cultural leaders and organizations whose work contributes to the artistic and cultural life of Toronto.

The Toronto Arts Foundation Awards are presented in recognition of a body of creative accomplishment rather than for specific works or achievements. The awards are generously funded by individuals and sponsors. Toronto Arts Foundation presents these awards annually at a variety of events, including our annual Mayor's Arts Lunch.

Award Description

The Toronto Arts Foundation Muriel Sherrin Award is a $10,000 cash prize with finalists receiving $1,000 each. The award celebrates an artist or creator who has made a contribution to the cultural life of Toronto through outstanding achievement in music or dance. The recipient will also have participated in international initiatives, including touring, studying abroad and participating in artist exchanges. In addition to the prize money, the 2026 recipient will receive a complimentary week-long stay at Valleyview Artist Retreat. The award rotates from music to dance in alternating prize years. In 2026, the award will be presented in the field of music. The Muriel Sherrin Award is presented every two years at the Mayor's Arts Lunch.

Basic Eligibility Requirements

Individuals:

- ✗ must have demonstrated an ongoing association with Toronto
- ✗ must have contributed significantly to the arts and culture of Toronto
- ✗ must be living at time of selection
- ✗ may not nominate themselves for the award
- ✗ may only receive this award once
- ✗ are not eligible to nominate or receive Toronto Arts Foundation awards while serving as an executive board member or staff of Toronto Arts Foundation or Toronto Arts Council

With the exception of the Newcomer Artist Award, no person or organization may be selected for more than one Toronto Arts Foundation Award within any given year, and no person or organization may receive the same Toronto Arts Foundation Award twice. This does not preclude a recipient from being considered for a different Toronto Arts Foundation award in the future.

Nominations for Multiple Awards

Please note that nominees are not eligible to be nominated for more than one award in a given year. If the same individual or organization is nominated for multiple awards, the nomination that was submitted first chronologically will be the one considered. All other nominations will be considered ineligible and removed from the submissions.

Individuals or Organizations with Multiple Nominations for the Same Award

Due to the volume of nominations, Toronto Arts Foundation is no longer accepting multiple nominations of the same individual or organization for each award. We encourage you to reach out directly to the artist or organization you would like to nominate to ensure they are aware of your submission on their behalf. The nomination that was submitted first chronologically will be the one considered for the given award. All other nominations will be considered ineligible and removed from the submissions.

How to Nominate

To nominate an individual for this Toronto Arts Foundation Award you must:

- visit the Toronto Arts Foundation Nomination Portal
- register an account on Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal or sign into your existing account
- submit the nomination online, complete with supporting material.

Notes:

Along with the name of the individual or organization you are nominating, the Nomination Portal will ask for a biography, a nomination rationale, and accompanying support material in the form of visual, audio or text-based attachments.

*Please ensure you are on/register through Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal and not Toronto Arts Council's 'TAC Grants Online.'

Award Selection Process: Policies and Procedures

Appointment of Awards Assessors

An award panel of up to 10 assessors selected by the Award Manager will review nominations and recommend a shortlist and a recipient for final approval by Toronto Arts Foundation's Board of Directors. Participants in each panel include practitioners of the arts, organizers, programmers, producers, curators, critics, commentators and lay specialists. Panelists must have recognized expertise, credibility, and experience along with a sense of history and perspective.

The final list of assessors is made public in the form of an announcement distributed to media and Foundation stakeholders and posted on the Foundation's website.

Details of Nomination and Selection Process

Members of the arts community and public are invited to nominate individuals and arts organizations to be considered by the assessors. Nominations must be submitted through Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal. Where appropriate, nominations may include accompanying support material in the form of visual, audio or text-based attachments. Award assessors are precluded from participating in the nominating process.

The assessors will be informed of Toronto Arts Foundation's criteria and the unique aspects of each award.

In addition to specific requirements for each award, deliberations will be guided by the following assessment criteria:

- artistic strength and achievement
- strength of the candidate's artistic goals and objectives
- contribution to the development of arts and culture in Toronto
- the nominee's overall public impact including community engagement and animation

The assessors endeavor to reach unanimous decisions in its selection process. In the event that unanimity is not achieved, a decision may be reached by majority vote. All deliberations are strictly confidential.

Following deliberations, the assessors will recommend a shortlist and recipient for each award. The shortlist will be made public in advance of the official awards presentation. The recipient will be announced the day of the official awards presentation event.

Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest refers to a situation in which private interests or personal considerations may affect an award assessor's judgment in the assessment process.

Specifically, a conflict of interest exists where an assessor has a financial interest in the success or failure of a candidate; has a personal interest in a specific candidate or has any other reason which makes them unable to objectively evaluate the candidate.

If in the course of the assessment deliberations, any assessor has a conflict of interest, that person is expected to declare such conflict and withdraw from the selection/voting process.

Toronto Arts Foundation reserves the right to amend these Policies and Procedures, without notice to any party.
