2027 TORONTO ARTS AWARDS

COMMUNITY ARTS AWARD DESCRIPTION & ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

Nomination Deadline: November 3, 2026

The Toronto Arts Awards are designed to heighten public awareness of the arts in Toronto by recognizing artistic excellence and achievement. The awards celebrate artists, cultural leaders, organizations and collectives whose work contributes to the artistic and cultural life of Toronto.

The Toronto Arts Awards are presented in recognition of a body of creative accomplishment rather than for specific works or achievements. The awards are generously funded by individuals and sponsors. Toronto Arts Foundation presents these awards annually at a variety of events.

Award Description

The Toronto Arts Foundation Community Arts Award is a $15,000 cash prize, with finalists receiving $1,000 each. The award celebrates an individual artist or arts organization or collective that has made a significant contribution in Toronto by working with, in and for communities, while increasing access to arts and culture. Established in 2013 as the Diversity Award, it was renamed the Community Arts Award in 2018. Award eligibility rotates from individuals to organizations or collectives in alternating prize years. In 2027, the award will be presented to an organization or collective. The recipient and finalist prizes are generously sponsored by MOD Developments Inc.

Eligibility Requirements

Organizations and Collectives:

- must be headquartered in Toronto and have a significant portion of its activity taking place in the city;
- must have contributed significantly to the arts and culture of Toronto.
- may self-nominate (for example, a staff or board member of the organization or collective may nominate the organization or collective)

An Individual, organization or collective may only be nominated for one Toronto Arts Award per awards cycle.

With the exception of the Newcomer Artist Award, a person or organization may not receive the same Toronto Arts Award more than once. However, previous recipients remain eligible to be nominated for a different Toronto Arts Award in a future awards cycle, provided they meet the eligibility criteria.

Multiple Nominations

Due to the volume of nominations, Toronto Arts Foundation is no longer accepting multiple nominations of the same individual or organization. If multiple nominations are submitted for the same individual or organization—whether for the same award category or across multiple award categories—only the first eligible nomination received (based on the submission timestamp) will be accepted. All subsequent nominations will be deemed ineligible and removed from consideration. We encourage you to reach out directly to the artist or organization you would like to nominate to ensure they are aware of your submission on their behalf.

Award Selection Process: Policies and Procedures

Appointment of Awards Assessors

An award panel of up to ten assessors selected by the award manager will review nominations and recommend a shortlist and a recipient for final approval by Toronto Arts Foundation's Board of Directors. Participants in each panel include practitioners of the arts, organizers, programmers, producers, curators, critics, commentators and lay specialists. Panelists must have recognized expertise, credibility, and experience along with a sense of history and perspective.

The final list of assessors is made public in the form of an announcement distributed to media and Foundation stakeholders and posted on the Foundation's website.

Details of Nomination and Selection Process

Members of the arts community and public are invited to nominate individuals and arts organizations to be considered by the assessors. Nominations must be submitted through Toronto Arts Foundation's Nomination Portal. Where appropriate, nominations may include accompanying support material in the form of visual, audio or text-based attachments. Award assessors are precluded from participating in the nominating process.

The assessors will be informed of Toronto Arts Foundation's criteria and the unique aspects of each award.

In addition to specific requirements for each award, deliberations will be guided by the following assessment criteria:

- artistic strength and achievement
- strength of the candidate's artistic goals and objectives
- contribution to the development of arts and culture in Toronto
- the nominee's overall public impact including community engagement and animation

The assessors endeavor to reach unanimous decisions in its selection process. If unanimity is not achieved, a decision may be reached by majority vote. All deliberations are strictly confidential.

Following deliberations, the assessors will recommend a shortlist and recipient for each award. The shortlist will be made public in advance of the official awards presentation. The recipient will be announced the day of the official awards presentation event.

Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest refers to a situation in which private interests or personal considerations may affect an award assessor's judgment in the assessment process.

Specifically, a conflict of interest exists where an assessor has a financial interest in the success or failure of a candidate; has a personal interest in a specific candidate or has any other reason which makes them unable to objectively evaluate the candidate.

If during the assessment deliberations, any assessor has a conflict of interest, that person is expected to declare such conflict and withdraw from the selection/voting process.

Toronto Arts Foundation reserves the right to amend these Policies and Procedures, without notice to any party.
